

When did you last have a professional life insurance review?

Life insurance is a complex business and life insurance policies often contain confusing small print.

And to make matters worse they deal with medical issues – terminology and definitions the average person can't quickly understand.

Don't risk having life insurance that won't pay when you need it to.

- Do you truly understand your policy?
- Do you know whether it will respond to the types of events you think it covers?
- Do you understand the tax implications of your life insurance premiums and benefits?
- Are you getting the very best value from your life insurance company?
- Do you understand the implications of your life insurance being in your superannuation fund?
- Are you happy with the advice and service you are currently receiving?
- Is your money being wasted on premiums for insurance you will never need?

At KNM, our advisers are specialist life insurance advisers and they can help you answer all of the above questions.

For an obligation free interview or telephone consultation call KNM now on 1300 753 864. You'll sleep better knowing your money is not being wasted.
